IV. PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES, INCLUDING DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Disability by Type

American Community Survey 2014-2018 5-year estimates.

Disability data also provides valuable context for assessing current and future need for accessible housing units. Note that since some disability types are not recorded for children below a certain age, calculating disability as a percentage of total population may not be accurate.

In La Mirada, the most commonly occurring disability amongst seniors 65 and older was an ambulatory disability, experienced by 19% of La Mirada's seniors (and 22.9% of seniors in the SCAG region).

Cost Burden by Income

Households by Share of Income Spent on Housing Cost:
Income	< 30%	30-50%	> 50%
< 30% HAMFI	290	450	925
30-50% HAMFI	468	358	675
50-80% HAMFI	1,165	720	394

> 100% HAMFI	6,415	834	75
Total Households	9,182	2,956	2,149

HUD CHAS, 2012-2016. HAMFI refers to Housing Urban Development Area Median Family Income.

Housing cost burden is most commonly measured as the percentage of gross income spent on housing, with 30% a usual threshold for 'cost burden' and 50% the threshold for 'severe cost burden.' However, a lower-income household spending the same percent of income on housing as a higher-income household will likely experience more true 'cost burden.' These data indicate the number of households in La Mirada by their income relative to the surrounding area and their share of income spent on housing.

Spending on Rent

Across La Mirada's 3,083 renter households, 1,654 (53.6%) spend thirty percent or more of gross income on housing cost, compared to 55.3% in the SCAG region. ### Spending on Rent by Income

American Community Survey 2014-2018 5-year estimates.

While the previous table breaks down cost burden by area-relative income, the ACS also allows for the analysis of La Mirada's 2,908 renter households (for which income data are available) by spending on rent by income bracket (dollar amounts). As one might expect, the general trend is that low-income households spend a higher share of income on housing (e.g. over 50%) while high-income households are more likely to spend under 20% of income on housing.

The most commonly occurring mortgage payment in La Mirada is $2000-$3000/month and the most commonly occurring mortgage payment in the SCAG region is $2000-$3000/mo.

Costs for Mortgage Holders by Income

Mortgage-holding households in La Mirada can be broken down by income and the percentage of income spent on mortgage costs. As one might expect, the general trend is that lower-income households spend a higher share of income on housing costs, while high-income households may spend a lower share of income on housing. The income category most prevalent amongst La Mirada mortgage-holding households is $75,000 or more (5,771 households) and the most prevalent share of income spent on mortgage costs is over 30% (2,943 households).
